CHARLIE HERALD AND HIS "ROUND-UP RANGERS"

THE "Round-up Rangers" are a group of Cowboy Musicians and entertainers from the prairies of Western Canada. For the past three years they have been a radio feature with their interpretations of old time ballads, cowboy songs, yodelling and novelty arrangements. Although some of the Rangers are young in years they are perhaps the most versatile entertainers in the West.

Meet the Boys

Charlie Herald, foreman of the Round-up Rangers, was born in Southern Manitoba, and has spent many years in Alberta. Charlie plays Spanish guitar, and is radio announcer for the Round-up Rangers.

Garry Herald, is the banjo and tenor guitar player, also a tap dancer. Garry sings the occasional song on radio, and calls the square dances.

Eddie Johnston, one of the finest young "old time" fiddlers in the West. Also plays banjo, mandolin and harmonica.

Harry Hughes. — "Hank" is Brandon's contribution to the "Round-up Rangers." He is vocal soloist and is rated as one of Canada's best yodellers. "Hank" plays guitar and harmonica, whistles and impersonates.

Arnold Johnston. — Arnold plays violin, viola, and cello; also composes and arranges music for the "Rangers."

Harold Cawston. — Harold is drummer and plays trumpet.

Jack McArton. — Piano accordion and piano. Jack is young, but is a sensation on piano accordion.

The "Round-Up Rangers" also use the following
World-famous selections:

"Home on the Range"
"She'll be comin' 'Round the Mountain"
"Bury Me Out on the Prairie"
"The Letter Edged in Black"
"I Wish I Was Single Again"
"Lane County Bachelor"
"The Rovin' Gambler"
"I Love You Truly"
"When the Work's All Done This Fall"
"I'll Take You Home Again, Kathleen"
"Can I Sleep in Your Barn Tonight, Mister?"

"Silver Threads Among the Gold"
"Liebestraum" (My Dream of Love)
"When You and I Were Young, Maggie"
"Hand Me Down My Walking Cane"
"Down By the Old Millstream"
"Carry Me Back to Old Virginny"
"Red River Valley"
"Golden Slippers"
"The East Bound Train"
"Pearl Bryan"
"Four Thousand Years Ago"

"Just A-Wearyin' for You"

"It pays to be first with a 'Hearst' Song."
